

New Life for Sick Man

Eaton Works Magic

"I have taken only two boxes of Eaton and feel like a new man. It has done me more good than anything else," writes C. O. Frappier.

Eaton is the modern remedy for acid stomach, bloating, food repeating and indigestion. It quickly takes up and carries out the acidity and gas and enables the stomach to digest the food naturally. That means not only relief from pain and discomfort but you get the full strength from the food you eat. Big box only costs a trifle with your druggist's guarantee.

Miss Ruth McCollum is studying for an M. A. in food chemistry at Columbia university.

Miss Louise Avery of Groton is now Mrs. Ransom Favorite.

GENERAL DIX REVIEWED

CADETS AT WEST POINT

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 21.—General Armando Diaz of the Italian army today reviewed the cadets of the United States military academy and with members of his party made an inspection tour of the academy buildings.

A field battery boomed the general's salute as the Italian army chief departed from the destroyer Detroit, on which he made the trip from New York. He was escorted by a picked company to the parade ground where he was received by Brigadier General Douglas MacArthur, commandant.

The cadet corps passed in review before General Diaz, after which the inspection tour was made. He was accompanied by a detachment of army officials of the American Legion. He returned to New York tonight.

JUDGE BROWN GRANTS TWO DIVORCES

Two divorces were granted by Judge Allyn L. Brown in the superior court at New London Friday and in three cases he reserved decision. All were on the uncontested list.

Irving S. Orth of New London was given divorce from Bertha Giherson Orth on the grounds of desertion since April, 1918. They were married June 11, 1915.

For desertion since Jan. 21, 1918, Muriel Smith Reissler of Norwich was given a divorce from Charles H. O. Reissler whom she married April 26, 1911.

Judge Brown took the papers in the petition for annulment of the marriage of Lillian L. Moore of Montville and Thomas J. Moore of New York. The wife's maiden name was Kaplan and it was alleged that at the time of her marriage, Jan. 23, 1920, she was 18 years old and had not the consent of her parents, Max and Yetta Kaplan, to marry Moore. It was claimed that he secured the license at the Norwich town clerk's office by swearing falsely that his prospective bride was the wife of his deceased husband.

The license was secured several days before the couple was married by A. J. Bailey, justice of the peace. As the girl was married, the marriage was annulled.

The suit of Ann Cathcart Klues of Groton for divorce from Otto Klues of parts unknown went off the list. They were married April 20, 1909 and she alleged desertion on Nov. 2, 1914.

Another case on the list was Rosie Sobolecki Bernacki of New London against Walenty Bernacki. She sought divorce on the grounds of intolerable cruelty since Jan. 1, 1915. They were married Aug. 7, 1911.

is still a minor the petition for the annulment of the wedding was brought by her father as her next friend.

Judge Brown also reserved decision in the suit of Henry H. Rice of Voluntown for divorce from Rosanna Blanchett Rice, now of parts unknown. They were married Oct. 19, 1910 and he alleged desertion on Nov. 2, 1914.

Another case in the which Judge Brown reserved decision was the suit of Lola Kinney Bell of Norwich for divorce from Marvin O. Bell of Houston, Texas. They were married in December, 1917. She alleged that her husband had committed adultery and had been intolerably cruel to her.
